Top 10 bestsellers

1. "The Secret" Rhonda Byrne

"The Secret" contains wisdom from modern-day teachers on how to achieve health, wealth and happiness.

2. "Henry and Harriet" H.C. MacArthur

A hopeful story that validates the feelings of children when someone dies.

3. "Suite Française" Irene Nemirovsky

A profoundly moving novel about life in wartime France by an author who was killed at Auschwitz.

4. "The Road" Cormac McCarthy

This new Oprah pick is an unflinching meditation on the worst and the best that we are capable of; ultimate destructiveness, desperate tenacity, and the tenderness that keeps two people alive in the face of total devastion.

5. "No Humans Involved" Kelley Armstrong

Readers around the world have fallen for Kelley Armstrong's intoxicating, sensual and wicked tales of the paranormal, in which demons and witches, werewolves and vampires collide often hilariously, sometimes violently with everyday life.

6. "The Brain That Changes Itself"

Norman Doidge

Doidge slowly turns everything we thought we knew about the brain upside down..and writes engagingly about some of the least understood marvels of the brain.

7. "The Golden Spruce: A Story of Myth, Madness, and Greed" John Vaillant

The felling of a celebrated giant golden spruce tree in British Columbia's Queen Charlotte Islands takes on a potent symbolism in the study of an unprecedented act of ecovandalism.

8. "The 100-Mile Diet: A Year of Local Eating"

Alisa Smith & J.B. MacKinnon The remarkable, amusing and inspiring adventures of a Canadian couple who make a year-long attempt to eat foods grown and produced within a 100-mile radius of their apartment.

9. "Infidel: My Life" Ayaan Hirsi Ali

In this profoundly affecting memoir, Ayaan Hirsi Ali tells her astonishing life story, from her traditional Muslim childhood in Somalia, Saudi Arabia, and Kenya, to her intellectual awakening and activism in the Netherlands, and her current life under armed guard in the West.

10. "My Sister's Keeper" Jodi Picoult

This novel examines what it means to be a good parent, a good sister, a good person. Is it morally correct to do whatever it takes to save a child's life even if that means infringing upon the rights of another?
